*5230. 2. Marshall. H. B. W., Feb. 9, 1916. I am very pleased to note H. B. W.'s comments on Joseph Marshall's ancestry. I find the record of the marriage of Joseph Marshall and Mercy Short, 1694, and of the birth of Joseph Marshall, the son of John, a Scotchman, and his wife Ruth, in the Boston Records, but cannot locate the "Island Genealogies" referred to. Can H. B. W. give authority for the connection between Joseph of Nantucket and Joseph who married Mercy Short? Also I would appreciate authority for the marriage of Joseph's parents, given as James Marshall and Ruth Hawkins. Should this not be John, not James, the father of Joseph?

on a petition for a church to be located in the Stafford district.
2. Marshall. Where did Joseph Marshall come from, who died in Nantucket between 1743 and Aug. 5, 1748, when his bill was probated. He married Abagail ——. Who was she? One of his eight children, Margaret, married Ichabod Wadsworth of Danbury, in 1720. There were several Joseph Marshalls of Lynn and Ipswich, but as far as I know they were not related.

*Mass. 2. Marshall, H. M. R. C., March 8, 1916. Nantucket Genealogies. In the communication of Feb. 9, the phrase "Island Genealogies" was not intended to designate printed pedigrees, but certain private collections compiled before 1860. As the authority of these works is often requested, it may be timely to state how they originated, by whom they were made, and where they are now located.

Shortly before 1800, the Nantucket Friends Meeting undertook to collect statistics relating to births and deaths of its members. A full record of marriages had been kept from the beginning of the settling. One of the members engaged in this work was Micajah Coffin, who died in 1827, and he extended the investigation to all Nantucket families and arranged a number of pedigrees. Benjamin Franklin Folger, who died in 1850, engaged in the same research, and at his death had gathered much useful material. During the next thirty years there were compiled by careful persons three extensive collections which hold high rank for accuracy and fulness of details. The authors used all the works which had previously been made and added the results of their own industry.

The William C. Folger collection is in the possession of the Nantucket Historical Association.

The work of Mrs. Eliza Pollard, later owned by her brother, F. C. Sanford, is in Boston in the hands of his representatives, but has not been available for inspection for many years.

The books of Mrs. Eliza Barney are owned by her granddaughter, Mrs. Eunice Barney Swain, at Nantucket.

These three investigators worked to some extent in unison and the collections largely agree in place and amount of material. Copies have been made from all of these works, some partial and others complete. While these three works and the copies taken therefrom are of high authority, they cannot be regarded as infallibly correct in all details. The copy used by this correspondent was based on the Folger Work, with additions from deeds and wills. In the answer to the Marshall inquiry, the writer gave all the information in his collection, but did not consult the Barney Work. Evidently the Nantucket compiler intended to prefix the Boston statistics to the Nantucket pedigree and may have stated the items erroneously. Except the presence of the name "Hawkins" in the first Marshall family at Nantucket, the writer has no facts outside of the genealogy to prove that the Joseph Marshall on the Island in 1707 was the Boston individual.

11 Thomas Macy came from the town of Chilmark in Wiltshire Eng. about the year 1640. when a young man. and settled at Salisbury in Essex Co. Mass. He mid Sarah Hopcoat. of Salisbury.
About the time of the persecution of Quakers a law was made imposing a fine on any one who should entertain a Quaker. of five pounds for each hour one was entertained. Two of them came for a rain storm and took shelter under the lee of his house. He invited them to come in to his house. They asked him if he knew the law, and said they did not wish to bring him into trouble. He still urged them to come into the house - they yielded and abode with him thirty six hours. This was soon known and the rigors of the law was about to be executed upon him. He got knowledge of it and taking his family into a boat with these expressions that he would go to the ends of the earth to find peace. They were accompanied by Edward Starbuck and Isaac Coleman. They arrived at Nantucket in the year 1659. The first white persons that came to Nant that any record is known.

See Note in Dr. Banks History of Martha Vineyard on Thomas Macy.

Notes.

Merrick, Mirick, Myrick, the latter spelling used in Nantucket, Mass. by the first of the name settled there. The family came from Wales of pure Cambrian blood, and trace back ancestry to king Codebog, who lived B.C. 262. The crest used to-day by the Lords of Anglesey is a raven with a key and a tower. Sir Henry Morgan "the scourge of the Spanish Main" spelled his name Meyrick.

James, the first settler in North America appears at Charlestown, Mass. in 1636. He m'd Margaret ——, had a family of seven children. Two grandchildren left Newbury and established themselves at Nantucket about 1728. They married daughters of Jonathan Pinkham, and carried on ship-building. Isaac married Deborah Pinkham, daughter of Jonathan, and had twelve children. Andrew m'd Jemima Pinkham, and had a family of fifteen children. Descendents of these brothers followed the sea over one hundred years, the principally in the whaling business, although every department of maritime service engaged their attention. Twenty-seven Myricks died or were lost at sea from Nantucket alone.

Isaac son of James + Margaret, was Capt. both military and maratime. He lived in Newburyport. Was Capt in Col. Benjamin Church's Regiment in 1704. at Port Royal.

Capt Seth Myrick was lost taking a whale. He was master of the ship John Adams.

George son of Andrew and Elizabeth, was a ship master, merchant, and Representative to the General Court of Massachusetts.

Peter and Isaac Myrick carried on an extensive rope-making business in the day of the whale fishery.

*2421. 2. Thatcher, Sears. M. B. M. L., Jan. 31, 1912. Richard Sears did not marry Dorothy Thacher (not Thatcher); her name is not in list of passengers by ship Bevis, and diligent search by Thacher and Sears genealogists has failed to find any one of the name at that period, and, on the contrary, it is certain that Anthony Thacher did not have a sister Dorothy.
Richard Sears married a sister of Richard Jones of Dinder, County of Somerset, England, and she was a sister of Elizabeth Jones, second wife of Anthony Thacher, hence the "uncle" and "brother" in Richard Sears's will, from which arose the erroneous statement that his wife was a sister of Anthony Thacher. She was in fact his sister-in-law.
3. Paddock. The parentage of Mary Paddock is not known, her husband, Robert Paddock, was a blacksmith, and it is not on record that he held any public office. His name is not in the published lists of passengers, and there is nothing to show what part of England he came from.
Richard Sears was a constable, juryman and delegate or deputy to the General Court at Plymouth. S. P. M.

*2286. 5. Sears, Sares, Paddock. M. B. M. L., Nov. 27, 1911; L. B., Dec. 20, 1911. S. P. May made it clear in the Sears Genealogy that the family name of Richard Sears's wife Dorothy was unknown, also whether she was the mother of his children or not. A note quoted from Mr. May in the New York Genealogical and Biographical Record (January, 1911, page 78) indicates that it is very probable that Richard Sears married a sister of Richard Jones of Dorchester and of Elizabeth Jones, second wife of Antony (2) Thacher of Yarmouth. Richard Jones's son, Samuel, in his will of May 28, 1661, makes bequest to his six cousins in Yarmouth. Only three children of Antony Thacher are known at this date. Richard Sears in his will calls Antony Thacher "brother," and Antony Thacher's son John calls Richard Sears "uncle." A most natural inference is that Richard Sears's three children, Paul, Silas and Deborah, were the rest of the six Yarmouth cousins of Samuel Jones. Richard Jones had come from Dinder, England, embarking at Weymouth before March 20, 1635. Alice Jones, aged twenty-six, who came on the James, in July, 1635, was doubtless his wife, who became the second wife of John Kingsley between Feb. 12, 1642, and Sept. 4, 1643. T. E. H. N.

(*1712.) Pease. I would like to know the ancestors of Abisha Pease, who was born in Edgartown, Martha's Vineyard, Mass., in 1735 or 1736. He was a pilot in the Revolutionary War. He was given a grant of land in Wilton, Me., between 1790 and 1798, three hundred acres, for his services in the Revolution. It is recorded in the United States Land Office, Washington, D. C. Two of his sons went from Edgartown to Wilton and settled on the land, their names were: Abisha and Samuel. I would like to know whom Samuel married and the names of his children and their wives' names.

Comment on Note *1049. Tupper. M. A. M. S., Feb. 21, 1911. According to a family record, Daniel Russell was born in 1680, and it is said that he came from Rhode Island to Nantucket, date not given. He was a cordwainer, and died at Nantucket in 1763.

He was married at Nantucket to Deborah Macy, Nov. 6, 1705, being styled "a foreigner," a term still applied, as I am told, to persons not born on the island. For children I have only Daniel, Benjamin, Jonathan, Joshua, William and John, without birth dates. Jonathan married Patience Swain, and I would like the date; William married Mary Coleman, Dec. 2, 1741; and John married Ruth Starbuck, Feb. 3, 1731-2. This is all I have about Daniel Russell, and I would gladly learn more.

If the Samuel Russell you mention was married in 1723 he could hardly be a son of Daniel and Deborah (Macy) Russell.

A. E. R. B.

Samuel Russell, who married Hulda Oder, was not the son of Daniel and Deborah. His parents' names are not given in my genealogy. The names of Daniel's parents are not given. Jonathan married Patience Swain, daughter of Benjamin; John married Ruth Starbuck, daughter of Nathaniel, Jr. William married Ruth Swain, daughter of John and Mary Coleman, daughter of John and Elizabeth Coleman, daughter of John and Elizabeth Bunker, widow of David and daughter of Stephen Gorham. Benjamin married Rebecca Gardner, daughter of Benjamin. Daniel married Content Norton, daughter of Jacob. Daniel and Deborah had forty-one grandchildren. S. W. G.

*(1943.) Russell, Oder. Can either A. E. R. B. or S. W. G. give the ancestry of Tristram Russell and his wife, Huldah Rogers, both said to be of Nantucket? Their daughter Huldah, born Feb. 26, 1794, in Dutchess County, N. Y., married, in 1824, Joseph Sherwood, born 1801 in Orange County, N. Y. The children of Huldah (Russell) Sherwood were: Samuel, 1825; Thomas Russell, 1827; Daniel, 1828; Esther Gerow, 1831, and William Barclay, 1836. There are the same names, viz.; Daniel, Samuel and Huldah. However, the father of Joseph Sherwood was also a Daniel, whose ancestry is greatly desired. Among the "visiting Friends" at Nantucket in 1817, I find Tristram Russell; and again, in 1822, Tristram Russell "of Cornwall" (Orange County, N. Y.). One Samuel Russell, Quaker, is given as a resident of Oblong, Dutchess County, in 1755. Was this the Samuel who married Huldah Oder? Is there any connection between the Russell family of Dartmouth and that of Nantucket? Some of the former were Quakers. F. S. W.

(*1944.) Amos Otis in "Barnstable Family" records that Daniel Russell came from Rhode Island, Austin and Arnold both give very meagre information on Russells. Austin, page 25: John Briggs testified Aug. 25, 1676, that Manasses (Indian) shot at Joseph Russell (Portsmouth or Tiverton) but no genealogy of the Russell family is given.

Arnold's Friends Records give the marriage of Joshua (2) Coggeshall to Rebecca Russell June 21, 1677. She may possibly have been the widow of Joseph Russell, or perhaps a sister. Daniel Russell of Nantucket may have been connected with this Rhode Island Quaker family of Russells. Austin's Vernor genealogy, page 402, gives, in 1754, will of widow Elizabeth (Paine) Prince Vernor. She mentions her brother-in-law Joseph Russell and his sons, Jonathan and Nathaniel, and his daughters, Sarah and Anne Russell.

Elizabeth (Paine) was born 1680, her sister was married at Portsmouth, R. I. Arnold neglected to copy date, but the record reads "Joseph Russell of Barnstable."

Perhaps the probate records of Barnstable, or of Portsmouth, R. I., would give some information in regard to Daniel Russell of Nantucket, if he belonged to the Rhode Island family. Samuel Russell of Nantucket must have been of another family. If the Quaker records of Nantucket are in existence, presume his children's births would be found among them, or perhaps other information.

One Samuel Russell and Elizabeth Eldridge were married at Marblehead November, 1682. Can anyone give list of their children, possibly a Samuel among them? William Russell of Dartmouth and Patience Swain of Chilmark recorded at Chilmark March 2, 1773. He was son of William (3) (Jonathan 2, John 1) of Dartmouth. This Russell genealogy (New England Historical and Genealogical Registry, vol. lix., page 22) gives no mention of either Daniel or Samuel of Nantucket. M. A. M. S.

*1943. Russell, Oder. F. S. W., May 1, 1911. Samuel Russell, who married Huldah Oder, died Jan. 6, 1780, aged eighty-three, probably at Nantucket. Huldah Oder, his wife, died 9m., 1740, and Samuel Russell married again. Do the Oblong Quaker records give the names of wife and children of Samuel Russell, the Quaker?

Samuel and Huldah of Nantucket had eight children; according to Folger genealogy in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. xvi., two of them were: William, born Nov. 22, 1732, married, Feb. 24, 1763, Lydia Mayhew; and Pelatiah, who married at Chilmark or Edgartown. Can anyone give the names of other children?

Samuel Russell of Nantucket was born 1697 (death record), and although descendants think he was born in England, no proof has been found.

Joseph and Jane (Blackman) Russell of New Haven, Conn., had a son, Samuel, born April 28, 1697; could he have been the Samuel of Nantucket? M. A. M. S.

Comment on Note *1162. "Shawshin."

*1421. Russell. L. R. F., July 18, 1910. I think the William Russell, who was connected with the iron works early, may have been connected with the Ralph and Nicholas mentioned in 1647. They all seem to connect also with a Pynyon named Nicholas, with whom they had quarrels but whose house they visited rather freely. William Russell testified as aged thirty-six in 1653, and, like Thomas Marshall, was a gunner of a ship called the Providence, sailing between Salem and Barbadoes. He may have been one of the Scotch prisoners, as some were employed at the iron works and had a special house built for them.

Nicholas Pinyon seems to have had a bad influence on a group of unattached young men who were employed in various capacities around the iron works, and were also mariners. Joseph Armitage's house was another home they frequented, hence I conclude Pinyon was not a relative, but kept a place of resort, and they were called to testify in regard to quarrels between Pinyon and his wife. A youthful Pineon or Pynyon was noted as eloping with a Narragansett woman, and was sought at Hampton, before 1669, by Henry Stevens who took her away from Pineon. In one way or another I kept getting glimpses of Pinyon, and finally a note which I have mislaid said that the Pinyons and Russells were together again near Norwalk, Conn., or Fairfield, so I placed the whole group in my list of mariner Russells from Marblehead to Norwalk all along shore. C. H. A.

Comment on Note *1552. Yerxa, Giraud. L. R. F., Oct. 14, 1914. Am seeking the ancestry of Samuel Russell of Nantucket, who died Jan. 6, 1780, aged about eighty-three, also another line of Russells. Sarah Russell married at Woburn, Mass., July 11, 1776, Joshua Ellis of Keene, N. H. He was severely wounded in the battle of Bunker Hill, and, in October, 1775, was reported "sick, absent."

It is presumed that he became acquainted with his future wife while recovering from his wounds, at Woburn, or vicinity. A dim family tradition says that she may have been a widow, possibly a few years older than her husband, Joshua Ellis, who was born in 1753.

The Woburn records do not give birth of a Sarah Russell anywhere near that year.

Can L. R. F. furnish any clue to her identity, either as a Russell or widow of a Russell? The children of Joshua and Sarah (Russell) Ellis, born at Keene, N. H., were: Abel, born April 19, 1777, married Sally Morse; Lucy, born Aug. 23, 1778; Sally, born Feb. 21, 1780, married Nov. 27, 1806, John Pray Blake; Lois, born Aug. 25, 1781, married Sept. 24, 1805, Luther How of Concord; Betsey, born July 24, 1783, married, May 8, 1806, Joseph White of West Moreland; Joshua, born April 18, 1785, married Jan. 1, 1807, Hepsibah Parker; Cynthia, born Feb. 16, 1787, died unmarried Dec. 17, 1844; John. One Samuel Russell, born New Haven, Conn., 1697, a descendant of Ralph (1) Russell of New Haven (see Savage)—this date agrees with the birth date of Samuel of Nantucket.

Will L. R. F., who appears to have made a study of the New Haven Russells, tell us what became of Samuel of New Haven?

C. E. B. M., Nov. 30, 1914. If Jemima, daughter of Tristram Coffin, was a minor in 1763, she could not have been the grandmother of Tristram Russell, who was married to Huldah Rogers, 1733, and who, according to "John Rogers's" book, was the son of Benjamin and Rebecca Russell.

Can L. R. F., Oct. 14, 1914, help us on the Nantucket Russells, Samuel, Benjamin, Robert? Who was Robert Russell, whose estate was divided, 1775, between widow Jemima and Benjamin? If said Benjamin was a son, he could not have been the father of Tristram; possibly he was a brother to Robert, deceased, and were they related to Samuel Russell, born 1697? M. A. M. S.

Comment on Note *1552. M. A. M. S., Dec. 14, 1914. It may interest students of Nantucket Russells to know that Jonathan Russell, born on Nantucket about 1747, removed to the mainland and married Hannah Rounseville. He had brothers: William, Benjamin, Elihu, Painter, and another, who removed to Hudson, New York. Thus says family tradition. I would like to learn the ancestry of these Russell brothers. W. M. E.

Note. Some of this family is on page 258 and the last two children are found on page 567 and in the Marshall Genealogy. Also see will of Patience Waldron. William Russell must have married first time before 1784 because he moved to New Boston in 1765 and had a son William Jr. who was at least 21 in 1785 when he took a deed of land in Portsmouth.

1747 Jonathan according to note on page 256 married 1770
Hannah Pomeroville and should be added to the above family, I think correctly.

Starbuck.

Edward Starbuck came from Derbyshire Eng. in 1643. Was a man of property — held various offices (public) — became a Baptist and was obliged to move elsewhere. Hearing of an expedition to the Island of Nantucket, he made an investigation with Thomas Macy of Newbury in 1659 and decided to settle there. His wife Catharine, his sons Nathaniel, ~~and Jethro~~, and daughter Dorcas accompanied him. Two daughters remained at Dover and married.

*2250.1. Starbuck, Austin. S. B. L., Nov. 6, 1911. Joseph (1) Austin of Hampton, N. H., 1642. Dover, 1648, died 1663; will of 1662 divides his property equally between his children, but the name of Thomas only reaches us. In 1659 Joseph (1) took second wife Sarah, widow of William Story and daughter of Elder Edward Starbuck. She married third Humphry Varney. Thomas (2) Austin, Dover N. H. (son of Joseph) by wife Ann had children (Savage, Genealogical Dictionary of New England).

Is the above Thomas the one referred to by querist, if so, please give authority for his marriage to Ann Otis? The births of his children are recorded in Dover, N. H., "Friends" records. These "Friends" records are of great value to searchers and have been published in New Hampshire Genealogical Records, volumes 2, 3, 4, 5; names of Varney, Austin and many others are recorded. Some of the families removed to Oblong, N. Y. Joseph (1) Austin's wife is unknown. Sarah (Starbuck) Story was probably not the mother of Joseph (1) Austin's children. Thomas (2) Austin had wife Ann (when and where married?) Third child, Nathaniel (3) born March 3, 1687, married at Dover, Nov. 22, 1714, Catherine, daughter of Andrew Neal of Kittery, Me.

The eighth child, Andrew (4) born Aug. 8, 1733, married at Oblong, 1760, Mary Hoag. Children born in Berwick (Maine or New Hampshire): Nathaniel, born Dec. 9, 1760, lived at Nine Partners: John, born Feb. 27, lived at Nine Partners; James, born June 29, 1764; Mary, born April 24, 1766, married John Hussey; Andrew, born May 13, 1768, died 1769; Annie, born Feb. 19, 1770, married Joshua Varney, Jr.; Marcy, born April 4, 1772, married Ebenezer Hussey; Andrew, born Aug. 27, 1774; Nicholas, born Dec. 28, 1779, died 1779; Rebecca, born Nov. 28, 1776, married Joel Meader; Sarah, born Nov. 25, 1780, married James Gore of Weare.

Andrew (2) Neal of Kittery, Me., died 1739. Will mentions daughter, Katherine Austin, and grandson Andrew Austin to whom he leaves twenty-two acres of land in "Berwick." Was this land in Berwick, Me.? Dover, N. H., Quaker records give Berwick as birthplace of Andrew and Mary (Hoag) Austin.

Children: Nathaniel (3) Austin (Thomas 2, Joseph 1) and his wife Catharine had the following children: Sarah, born 14 day, 9 month, 1719, married Ebenezer Pinkham; Anna, born 17 day, 6 month, 1721, married Maul Hanson; Nathaniel, born 24 day, 4 month, 1723; Rebecca, born 21 day, 1 month, 1725, married Simeon Hill; Nicholas, born 15 day, 10 month, 1727; Mary, born 17 day, 8 month, 1730, married Stephen Hanson; Priscilla, born 4 day, 3 month, 1732, married Caleb Hogdon; Andrew, born 8 day, 8 month, 1733, married Mary Hoag; James, born 13 day, 5 month, 1735; Elijah, born 3 day, 6 month, 1738. Can anyone give marriage and children of James (4), born 1735, and of James (5) (Andrew 4), born 1764? I am in search of birthplace and parents of Alvah Austin, born 1799 (gravestone), came from some town in New Hampshire to Pittstown, N. Y., and there married, about 1826, Harriet Norton of Quaker parentage; he names sons, James and Theodore, and was connected in some way with Hoags.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. H. B. S., Jan. 25, 1915. A hasty examination of the record of marriage of Humphrey Varney to Sarah Storer. The only explanation I can make cite the following: "Humphrey Varney I. will shows the name written plainly ministration of estate of William Varney is that this was a mistake either in the of Ipswich granted to Bridget Varney, original record or in copying the same. widow, March 28, 1654." Essex Antiqua- I also question the accuracy of the rerian, vol. x., page 177. "Thomas Varnye, cord in stating that John, who died Aug. son of William Varnye, bound unto Wil- 14, 1666, was son of Humphrey by wife liam Bartholomew of Ipswich, Jan. 26, Sarah, at least if the John born at Nan- 1650."

Ipswich Quarterly Court Records and tucket, Sept. 5, 1664, is referred to. Files, page 187, will of Bridget Varney of This John was born six months before Gloucester, dated Nov. 10, 1671: Humphrey and Sarah were married, and

"I give and bequeath unto my son, Hum- while accidents occurred even in Quaker frey Varney, ye sum of twenty pounds. families, I doubt if this is an instance.

"I give and bequeath to my son, Thomas S. B. S.

Varney, seven sheep." Certified copy of this will in my possession. As to Esther Starbuck, first wife of Humphrey Varney, see New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. v., page 197.

The births of Humphrey Varney's children by his second wife, Sarah (Starbuck) Story was probably not the mother of Austin, are found in the published Dover, N. H., records.

Since I wrote my note I have found the following, which may be of interest: In "Notable Events in the History of Dover, N. H.," by George Wadleigh, Dover, Sept. 19, 1662, contains the names of "humfrey Varney" and "Josephf Astin"; the next one, made July 10, 1663, does not contain the name of Joseph Austin, but the names of "Sarale Astin" and Humfrey Varney are found next to each other, and on a list made Feb. 10, 1666, "humfrey varney" alone appears.

The name Austin is found quite frequently on the records of "Dover Friends Monthly Meeting" as published in "The New Hampshire Historical and Genealogical Recorder."

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. H. B. S., June 7, 1915. A hasty examination of the records at Concord reveals nothing of importance on this matter except the following, which, however, is hardly clarifying:

In 1670, Philip Cromwell brought suit, on an obligation of Joseph Austin's, against "Humphrey Varney and Sarah, his wife, administratrix, to the estate of Joseph Austin." Court Papers 1659-1672, page 443. Now Humphrey Varney left a widow Sarah, yet in 1680 administration on the estate of Joseph Austin was granted to Peter Coffin (N. H. Probates 1-242) which would seem unnecessary if Sarah were still living.

An examination of the record of marriage of Humphrey Varney to Sarah Storer shows the name plainly written Storer. The only explanation I can make is that this was a mistake either in the original record or in copying the same. I also question the accuracy of the record in stating that John, who died Aug. 14, 1666, was son of Humphrey by wife Sarah, at least if the John born at Nantucket, Sept. 5, 1664, is referred to. This John was born six months before Humphrey and Sarah were married, and while accidents occurred even in Quaker families, I doubt if this is an instance.

2. Starbuck, Varney. On page 21 it is stated that Esther Starbuck married Humphrey Varney as his first wife. What is the authority?

3. Shackford. Who were the parents of Samuel Shackford, who married Sally Hanaford at New Market, N. H., 1791?

4. Shackford, Kendall. Who were the parents of Deliverance Shackford, who married Abel Kendall, Epping, N. H., 1791?

(*4440.) 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. I have always assumed, and professional genealogists seemed to infer, that the Mary Austin who married Richard (3) Gardner of Salem and Nantucket was the daughter of Joseph Austin of Dover and his wife Sarah (Starbuck) Story. When I came to look closely at my notes I promptly changed my mind and now I want to find a mother (or a father) for Mary.

Edward (1) Starbuck (1604-1690) of Dover, 1643, "went to Nantucket, 1659, and left behind him his daughter Sarah, who had previously married William Story, and recently Joseph Austin." As her first husband died in 1658 she could not have been a widow long. Did she have a daughter Mary Story afterward called Austin? Joseph Austin died in 1663 and in his will after providing for his wife left property to be divided equally between all his children, but mentions only his eldest son Thomas. Now, he could not have had very many children between 1659 and 1663 so he must have been married before. Who was his first wife and how many of the children were hers?

In August, 1681, at Nantucket, the estate of Benjamin Austin was ordered to be distributed to brothers Thomas and Nathaniel and sisters Deborah Coffin and Mary Gardner. Mary Austin was married May 17, 1674, to Richard Gardner (1653-1728); she died in Nantucket 1720 or 1721. If she was the daughter of Joseph and Sarah she could not have been over fourteen years old which seems, to say the least, unlikely. Will someone kindly tell me who the first wife of Joseph Austin of Dover was, as well as something about her and her children?

* Helen B. Wolfe left a note that Sarah Story married Humphrey Varney.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. G. C. H., Dec. 28, 1914. In reference to Sarah (Starbuck) Austin, her third husband was Humphrey (2) Varney, son of William and Bridget Varney of Ipswich, Mass. Humphrey Varney was received as an inhabitant at Dover, N. H., June 4, 1659. His first wife was Esther, youngest daughter of Edward Starbuck. They had one son, Ebenezer, the date of whose birth is not known.

He married, second, Sarah (Starbuck) Storey or Storer, and widow of Joseph Austin. Their first child was born Sept. 3, 1664, at the home of Edward Starbuck at Nantucket. They subsequently returned to Dover, where the remainder of their children were born. Humphrey Varney died in 1714 and his will mentions his wife Sarah, but none of her children are mentioned outside of his own. This would strengthen the belief that Joseph Austin did not live long after his marriage to Sarah (Starbuck) Storey.

H. C. V.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. H. C. V., Jan. 13, 1915. If Sarah (Starbuck) Story was the wife of Joseph Austin in 1663, she was four times married, three of the marriages between 1661 and 1664. New Hampshire Probate (printed), vol. i., page 32. Administration on estate of William Story granted to Samuel Austin June 27, 1661. Inventory presented Oct. 8, 1660, sworn to by Sarah Austin "some time the wife of William Story, dec." June 27, 1661, widow of said Story, now the wife of said Austin (Samuel) allowed her thirds.

Samuel Austin must have died, and his widow married Joseph Austin between June, 1661, and January, 1662-3.

Joseph Austin made his will Jan. 25, 1662-3, names eldest son Thomas and other children (not by name) he "left with his wife," names Captain Walldon, Elder Winfold and my brother, Peter Coffin "to order and dispose of them."

The Court, in 1663, conceding the will to be imperfect, because no executors were named, appointed the widow as administratrix. Inventory attested by Sarah Austin, July 3, 1663, and she married Humphrey Varney the same year or early in 1664.

It appears from above that she was not the mother of any of Joseph Austin's children. Joseph called Peter Coffin his brother. Was Joseph's first wife a sister of Peter Coffin, or did Peter Coffin marry Joseph Austin's sister?

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. G. C. H., Dec. 28, 1914, and H. C. V., March 3, 1915. "Early Settlers of Nantucket" states that Mary Austin, who married 1674, Richard Gardner, was a daughter of Joseph Austin and Sarah Starbuck. This record is doubtless taken from the certificate which the Friends used when they "declared their intention of taking each other in marriage" and is doubtless correct. It was the custom to name at this time the parents of both bride and groom, and many witnesses attested the paper.

I can find but one William Story in Dover or elsewhere and only one settlement of his estate (see Transcript Feb. 15, 1915). He left a widow Sarah and four sons. She married Samuel Austin and was administrator with him June 27, 1661; this is the same date which Savage Genealogical Dictionary gives as proof that the widow Sarah Story married Joseph Austin. But the New Hampshire Probate Records are the most reliable, and Joseph Austin is not mentioned until 1662, when he made his will (page 56), leaving widow Sarah, son Thomas and other children.

Savage's printing his dictionary in 1864 probably followed Alonzo Quint, who wrote in 1859, and is quoted by H. C. V., March 3, 1915, Transcript, "From Historical Memoranda of Ancient Dover," "from an examination of town records we are convinced that Sarah Starbuck married, first, William Story abo.it 1658, second, Joseph Austin, about 1659-60, who was dead in 1663, third, Humphrey Varney, for a widow Sarah Story is represented to have married Joseph Austin when William Story's inventory was entered." See New Hampshire Probate Records, page 52, vol. I, and find the name is Samuel Austin and Joseph has no connection with William Story's widow.

As Quint has made one mistake regarding this family we are not surprised to find another, and that is partly right and wrong depending how you read it. Leave out the words "husband of Sarah," which was true and doubtless gleaned from some deed, and read, "After Joseph Austin's death, Elder Edward Starbuck confirms to his son-in-law Humphrey Varney (he was by virtue of having a first wife Esther Starbuck) land formally given him (Starbuck) by his son-in-law Joseph Austin (who married Sarah Starbuck)." The descendants of William Story's sons may all be found in Wells and Kennebunk History; one I think removed to Charlestown, Mass. Dover Historical Records, Vol. 1, pages 124-125, which is the vital records of Dover, N. H. "Humphrey Varney married Sarah Storer March 2, 1664." A son John, born in Nantucket, 9 mo. 5 day, 1694, is credited to Humphrey Varney and Sarah Storer. March is the first month of the year in the early Friends' records, and so should read Nov. 5, 1664. The name John may give a clue to father, for Sarah Storer, who may have been a niece of William Story or Storer, having become a Baptist or Friend, was in Nantucket with the Starbuck family, and Humphrey Varney in Nantucket on account of his religious belief.

I trust that the above may help settle this vexing question; I have long worked on it, as Starbuck, Austin and Varney are on my chart, but not William Story or Storer, who has had credited to him in print many wives: Sarah Starbuck, either as maid or widow of Joseph Austin, also an Elizabeth Gouch, daughter of John and Ruth, who married, second, Samuel Austin. I am convinced that all are wrong, and she is, as given in Probate Records, Sarah, widow of William Story, second wife of Samuel Austin.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. G. C. H., Dec. 28, 1914. The statement of Savage and followed by others, that Joseph Austin married Sarah, widow of William Storey, sometimes written Storer, is a mistake, I think. Permit me to offer the following for the consideration of all interested in Austin data:

In the published New Hampshire probate records, vol. i., page 51, is the settlement of the estate of William Storey, who died sometime before 1660, administration granted to Samuel (not Joseph) Austin, sworn to by Sarah Austin, sometime wife of William Storey, mentions four children, whose names we find in York deeds, book ii., folios 91, 121, 158, they were: Joseph, Benjamin, Jeremiah and Samuel Storer or Storey.

Savage says: Samuel Austin settled in York, Me., and we find him in Wells, the next town, as early as Oct. 29, 1654, when land was granted him (York deeds, book i., folio 147, printed volumes found in Maine Historical Library, probably in Boston library), next to land he already owned in Wells, Me.; perhaps he had followed Rev. John Wheelwright there, as many of his people did, Edmund Littlefield, whose wife was Annis Austin, among them. Annis (Austin) Littlefield's estate, settled in 1677-8, was appraised by Samuel Austin, that may signify a connection or nothing.

In Sept. 25, 1655, Samuel Austin had wife Elizabeth (York deeds, book i., folio 149), so Sarah, the widow of William Story, was probably his second wife, they were married before 1662, and he was alive in 1684; so his widow Sarah (Story) Austin, could not have been the second wife of Humphrey Varney, whose child by second wife was born Sept. 5, 1664; she could have been the Sarah ——, widow of Joseph Austin (but not William Storey), whose will, found in New Hampshire probate records, vol. i., page 56, leaves his children to his wife, son Thomas to have double portion, no other names given; his will probated 1662, would leave a Sarah, maiden name unknown to me, at a good time for Humphrey Varney's second wife.

Joseph Austin mentions Captain Walldon, Elder Winford and Brother Peter Coffin in his will.

Ebenezer Varney, son of Humphrey, married Mary Otis and Thomas Austin, son of Joseph, married Anne ——, and their names are found on the earliest Friends' records; see New Hampshire Genealogical Record, vol. ii., page 75.

For more proof that it was Samuel and not Joseph Austin who married Sarah, the widow of William Storey or Storer, I send these extracts from York deeds, book ii., folio 91:

"Where as I, Samuel Austin do stand engaged upon record in a bond of two hundred and sixty pounds, as appears a writing under my hand and seal, bearing date Nov. 23, 1661, for making good of an estate of William Storer, deceased, of one hundred and thirty pounds unto his children . . . In consideration of the filial portions which I am and stand engaged to pay unto Joseph and Benjamin Storer, the two eldest sons of my wife . . . dated 1670, Jan. 31."

Joseph Storer was now twenty-one years old, as he was born in 1648; he settled with Benjamin at this same time, and with Jeremiah the next year (folio 121) and with Samuel Storer in 1674 (folio 158).

This is an extract from another deed, found in the same book and folio 91:

"Received and accepted of Samuel Austin our father-in-law, two tracks of land lying in Wells . . . to be divided equally between us . . . full satisfaction of our Fathers estate . . . care for our father-in-law and mother, viz., Samuel Austin and Sarah, his now wife.

Joseph Storer,
Jan. 31, 1670. Benjamin Storer."

I should be very glad of proof that Joseph Austin married Sarah Starbuck, who became the second wife of Humphrey Varney, who married Esther Starbuck for first wife.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. E. G. P. M., Feb. 15, 1915. I am very glad to see this matter of Sarah Starbuck and her numerous husbands discussed so as to bring out all possible information bearing on the case, being a descendant of Humphrey Varney.

Rev. Alonzo H. Quint of Dover, N. H., devoted many years to the study of the early town records of Dover, and his researches were published under title, "Historical Memoranda of Ancient Dover." An article of his, published March 23, 1859, and found on pages 130 and 131, has the following to say regarding Sarah Starbuck: "But from an examination of the town records we are convinced that she married, first, William Story about 1658; second, Joseph Austin about 1659 or 1660, who was dead in 1663; third, Humphrey Varney, for widow Sarah Storie is represented to have married Joseph Austin when William Story's inventory was entered, and Joseph Austin in his will speaks of 'my brother Peter Coffin,' and after Joseph Austin's death Elder Starbuck confirms to his 'son-in-law, Humphrey Varney,' husband of 'Sarah,' land formerly given him by his "son-in-law, Joseph Austin.'" Dr. Quint here appears to be quoting from original records, and this confirmation may possibly be found on the New Hampshire Province Deeds at Concord, N. H. "My brother, Peter Coffin," was husband of Abigail Starbuck, and therefore brother-in-law of Joseph Austin.

This seems to be reasonably clear, and we now have to deal with Sarah Starbuck's connection with William Story. In the collections of the Dover Historical Society, 1894, pages 124, 125, Early Records of Dover, N. H., is found the following:

"Humphrey Varney maried to Sarah Storer ye 2nd of March 1664. Theire Son: Peter bo. 29 March: 1666.

"Jno: Verney Son of Vmph: Varny by Sarah his wife died 14 Augt. 1666.

"Joseph Varney So: of Hump: Varney by Sarah his wife borne ye 8 Octobr 1667.

"Abigail the daughter of Humpr Varny by Sarah his wife borne 10th July 1669."

The birth of the son John who died is found on the Nantucket Records, New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. vii., page 81.

"John son of Humphrey Varny was born ye 5. Sept. 1664."

The calling of her as Sarah Storie in the marriage records makes matters still more confusing. Humphrey Varney had a son John born later, but whose birth is not recorded, who died before his father. He left a will in which he mentions his brothers, Ebenezer Varney and Peter Varney, and Humphrey Varney in his will mentions his son, Ebenezer Varney, first.

This has been a puzzling matter and I trust some of the parties interested may be able to solve it.

MONDAY, APRIL 5, 1915.

(*4602.) Austin. Who was the mother of Benjamin Austin, whose estate was divided at Nantucket in 1681 to his brothers, Thomas and Nathaniel, and sisters Deborah Coffin and Mary Gardner? He was son of Joseph Austin of Salem or Dover, who died 1663, but these children could not all of them, at least, have been children of Sarah (Starbuck) Story; as her first husband died in 1658, and Joseph Austin, her second husband, in 1663. All the authorities I can find give Mary (Austin) Gardner as the daughter of Joseph Austin and Sarah (Starbuck) Story Austin, but this seems wrong, or else Mary Austin married Richard Gardner at the age of about fourteen and had a daughter a year later. Perhaps H. C. V., who gave Varney data in answer to my query of Dec. 28, 1914, or S. B. S., who asks for more Jan. 25, 1915, will kindly help me out. G. C. H.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner, E. G. P. M., Feb. 15, 1915. That Joseph Austin's wife was not the widow of William Storey seems clear from authorities quoted. Dr. Quint's memoranda number 69 on the Starbuck Family gives as his authorities the town records and Peter C. Folger of Nantucket. The "Early Settlers of Nantucket" gives us authority for the statement that Humphrey Varney married Esther Starbuck, the "Folger Manuscripts" (I quote from memory). Can anyone state the value of the "Folger Manuscripts" as authority and exactly what it contains on the Starbuck-Austin-Varney marriages?

Dr. Quint says "Sarah is the subject of considerable difference of accounts. Tradition represents her to have married Benjamin (misprint for Joseph) Austin, and the same authority makes another and nameless daughter to have been the wife of Humphrey Varney." He also misquotes the following record replacing "his wife" by "husband of Sarah."

On page 114 of the first (extant) book of Dover records appears the following:

Be it known to all men whome this may Concearn that whereas there was given to me a Parcell of Land on the west side of ye back River Containing twenty Acores that I Edward Starbuck did give the sd Land to my son in law Joseph Austin and doe by these presents Confirm the same gifts to my son in law humphrey Varney and his wife witnes my hand this 11th of may (1664

Witness witt Pomfrett
Edward Starbuck

Immediately following this is a confirmation of said land by Humphrey Varney to Will Brackstone in 1696.

Next below in a different hand and ink is a record of laying out to Nicholas Follet, in 1709, of land formerly laid out to William Story in 1656. At the bottom of the page is record of grant of forty acres to William Story in 1650.

On page 195 "Wedoe Story" appears in tax list of 22-9-1659.

If the date of the confirmation and the dates quoted by H. C. V., March 3, are correct and in old style the confirmation may have been prior to Humphrey's marriage to Sarah Storer. These latter records, however, are not town records but from a manuscript in possession of New Hampshire Historical Society. This has been printed in the Dover Historical Collection and, probably less correctly, in New England Historical and Genealogical Register, vol. vii., page 115. This manuscript is evidently not an original record, but a compilation, made years after most of the events recorded, and recopied.

This question of Sarah has been open for sixty years and now seems to be the time to settle it. Won't correspondents in Nantucket and Concord, N. H., please contribute?

S. B. S.

*4440. 1. Starbuck, Austin, Gardner. C. E. B. M., May 19, 1915. Have you complete records of the family of William Storer or any of his daughters? The Austin wives seem to be accounted for. We must now find a wife for Humphrey Varney, since it would appear from S. B. S. that Quint's notes are in error, and that his second wife was not Sarah, widow of William Storer and Joseph Austin, but another person. Humphrey Varney was probably born about 1640, either in England or Barbadoes; he came to Dover, N. H., in 1659, and his marriage to Sarah Storer is recorded in March. 1664; the record does not indicate whether she was Miss or Mrs. He died in 1714, and his widow, Sarah, survived him, and is mentioned in his will. He was probably about twenty-five years of age when he married Sarah Storer, and had she been a twice widow at that time would be considerable older than he was, and would be quite old to survive him. It occurs to me that possibly this Sarah Storer was a daughter of William Storer and a sister of the Benjamin and Joseph you mention. It may be significant that Humphrey Varney named one of his sons Joseph, and his son, Peter, named two of his sons Benjamin and Joseph.

Humphrey Varney's first wife was Esther Starbuck, and it would appear she did not live long, and left one son, Ebenezer Varney, the ancestor of a large branch of the Varney family.

John 1st. came to Nantucket in 1661. He married Mary Wyer dr. of Nathaniel and Sarah. He was called Goodman Wyer and his wife was called Goody Wyer. She was a doctress. The first settlers hired them to stay here and live on the Island, for the sake of Sarah Wyer.

Trott

There was a Thomas Trott in Dorchester who had a son John Baptized 1664. Thomas died 1614-1696. It is doubtful if this John was the one who was in Nantucket keeping Cattle in 1682

By reference to Deeds of York Co. Maine, Wills of Maine and History of Wells and Kennebunk, it will appear that John Trott of Nantucket gave a deed of land in Wells in 1685: was in Wells before 1670: and in the will of Stephen Batson 1673 of Wells he leaves a legacy to his grandson John Trott and one to Mary Trott.

Note. Arthur H. Goodwin states that he found the Trotts in York County. Maine.

*7791. 9. Worth. H. B. W., May 31, 1905. Can H. B. W. give definite proof of the statement that William, Richard and Lionel Worth were brothers? The story is not new, but the writer has never learned upon what evidence it rests, although there seems to be no doubt that some sort of relationship existed. Lionel was probably a number of years older than the others. Richard married, Sept. 11, 1667, Mary Pike at Newbury, Mass (date from Savage). He probably moved to New Jersey not long after, and according to "New York Genealogical and Biographical Record," 1898, died in 1691. The Richard of New Jersey at Nantucket, 1722, was more likely a grandson than son of the first Richard. There was a James Worth, wife Elizabeth, in Boston, 1686, and after. Who was he?

F. M. C.

*7791. 9. Worth. H. B. W., May 31, 1905. It may be news that the will of Richard Worth, Jr., of Piscataway, dated Feb. 1, 1691-92, and proved March 1, 1691-92, can be found in "New Jersey Archives," vol. xxi., page 192, mentioning sons John and Joseph and daughter Judith, and that on page 196, where he is spoken of as deceased, as well as in each other instance where he is referred to as the owner of land, he is mentioned as Richard Worth without the affix junior.

Can A. S. W. or H. B. W. tell me what relation there was between the said Richard Worth and the two brothers, Morris and William Worth of Shrewsbury, N. J.? The latter died 11mo., 25, 1710-11, leaving children born to him by his first wife Faith; Sarah, the wife of Joseph Lawrence; Winnifred, Edward and Patience. Faith died 9mo., 30, 1683, and William's second intentions were published 5mo., 4, 1687, with Mary Smith; and on 2mo., 2, 1695, he married Joane Wolcott of Burlington, who died 7mo., 15, 1720. The signatures of both William and Faith appear on the Shrewsbury Quaker Records as early as 9mo., 1674, and are also to be found in a most prominent position when Ann Worth married 12mo., 2, 1680, Francis Jeffrey. W. W. H.

Will F. M. C., who answered this query June 14, 1905, kindly inform me if Richard Worth, who married Sept. 11, 1667, Mary Pike at Newbury, Mass., had a descendant named John Worth, who married Sarah Batchelder, daughter of Thomas, in 1746?

R. W. M.

*7791. 9. Worth. A. S. W., May 15, 1905. John Worth of Devonshire, England, was a royalist, and was killed in the wars of Charles I. His property was confiscated when the protectorate of Oliver Cromwell was established. Four sons left England, three came to America, one went to Portugal.

William settled in Nantucket, Mass., Richard went to New Jersey. Lionel settled in Newbury, Mass. William married Sarah Macy, daughter of Thomas and Sarah Hopcot. Richard, grandson of William, married Sarah Hoeg. No mention is made in my record of a second wife. He died in 1742. In 1722 a Richard Worth from New Jersey came to Nantucket, and married Lydia Swain, daughter of Benjamin. Richard Worth's will was probated in Nantucket in 1762.

He had a daughter Eunice who married, first, Joseph Gardner, and second, Benjamin Tabor of New Bedford, Mass. Richard Worth from "New Jersey" has no lineage mentioned in the record, but from the date of his arrival at Nantucket, he might reasonably be surmised to have been a nephew of William Worth, the first of the name who settled here. There are said to be numerous descendants of Richard Worth, brother to William in New Jersey, and Nantucket. H. B. W.

*4222. Worth. T. G. S., Aug. 26, 1914. The inquiries of T. G. S. involve facts some of which have been already stated in these columns. Without resort to tradition, some of which seems well founded, it appears that in July, 1662, a William Worth engaged to serve the Nantucket settlers as a sailor, and received a grant of land and thereupon settled at the island and later married the daughter of Thomas Macy. Their only child, and the only descendant of William, was the son of John who married Miriam Gardner, daughter of Richard. Most of the Nantucket Worths are descendants of John. On the death of Miriam in 1701, he moved to Martha's Vineyard and married twice. By the third wife Dorcas he had several children, and from them descended the Vineyard Worths. The Benjamin Worth in the inquiry was not a descendant of William and Sarah Macy.

It may be safely inferred that William Worth previously resided in the vicinity of Newbury, Mass., whence came the settlers of Nantucket, and that, in 1662 he had passed the age of twenty-one. It is also a fact that the first daughter of John was named Judith, a name not frequently found in other Nantucket families.

In 1664 a Richard Worth of Newbury, Mass., joined a company to found the Town of Woodbridge, New Jersey. He died in 1691, and in his will is mentioned a daughter Judith. Numerous families of Worths have resided in the eastern part of New Jersey.

Lionel Worth died in Newbury in 1667, leaving five children, one of whom was named Judith. According to one tradition William, Lionel and Richard were brothers, and by another only relatives. The name Lionel appears in William's, but in no other Nantucket family. In "Settlers of Nantucket," by Mrs. Hinchman, is a sketch of the "order and manner of seating the Parishioners of the Parish of Brixton, England in 1638." The list contains Robert Worth, Walter Worth, Tristram Coffin and Dionis Stevens, whom he later married, Elizabeth Worth, Mary Worth, Richard Worth, John Worth and most significant of all, Judith Worth. It may be that in the records of Brixton Parish is evidence of how William, Richard and Lionel Worth were related to each other.

In 1722 a Richard Worth appeared in Nantucket and was married to Lydia Swain, daughter of Benjamin, by John Coffin, justice of the peace. Their son Benjamin married, 1745, Mary Folger, in Friends Meeting, and, in 1769, in the same meeting, Benjamin, son of Benjamin and Mary, married Phebe Coffin, daughter of John Coffin and Anna Coleman. The latter was a daughter of Elihu Coleman the famous minister, and a descendant of Nathaniel and "the Great Mary Starbuck."

There is a tradition that this Richard was called "the Jersey Man," and, while it is probable that he came from New Jersey, yet the fact has not been established. Benjamin Worth, husband of Phebe, was born 1742 and died 1838. He was a Quaker minister and resided in Vassalboro, Me. His family removed in 1798 from Nantucket. H. B. W.

*4222. Worth. T. G. S., Aug. 26, 1914. In answer to this inquiry, the writer contributed a statement in relation to Richard Worth of Nantucket, who, in 1722, married Lydia Swain, and died 1762. Information has been recently discovered, which solves this problem, and consists of a power of attorney, recorded in the ancient land records in Trenton, New Jersey. In narrative form, the facts are as follows: Richard Worth of Newbury, in 1667, married Mary, the daughter of Major Robert Pike, and immediately removed with the company that settled Woodbridge, New Jersey. He died in 1691, leaving a will and three children: Joseph, John and Judith. The sons married sisters, respectively Sarah and Jane Giles. Joseph died in 1724, leaving a will and nine children, one of whom was James, but no Richard. In 1715 John gave a deed to his eldest son Richard, conveying New Jersey land, and died after 1743.

Richard Worth of Nantucket, Massachusetts Bay, New England, in October, 1749, gave a power of attorney to his cousins James Worth and John Clark, to sell his Woodbridge farm. In 1750, they advertised in a local paper the New Jersey farm that formerly belonged to John Worth. A third Giles sister married a Clark, and was the mother of John. The document therefore proves that the Nantucket Richard must have been the son of John Worth and grandson of Richard of Newbury. This ancestry affects a great number of descendants, not so numerous by the name of Worth, but more largely through many female lines. H. B. W.

Mary Pike who married Richard Worth was daughter of John Pike a brother of Major Robert and both were sons of John.

Worth.

On page 430 are some facts in relation to Richard Worth of Newbury and another of Nantucket. Information has come from New Jersey that solves the problem. It is a power of attorney given by Richard of Nantucket to his cousins James Worth and John Cook to sell his real estate that once belonged to John Worth. The document is recorded in Trenton and is dated Oct. 1749. By reference to Records of Newbury and other Records of New Jersey at Trenton it is proved that the line is as shown on this page, starting with the Richard of Newbury who joined the Company that settled Woodbridge.

John Way whose widow Abigail had only a life right in the estate is John[2] who m. for 2[d]. wife Abigail Starbuck (Howes) wid Thos. Jr. —

John[1] and John[2] Way each have a wife Abigail — and each Abigail was a widow — ~~John's Abigail with one son, and that son~~ each with one son. The son of the Elder Abigail was named Thos. the same as his father - ~~the son of the younger~~ and his wife had the same given name as his mother. — The son of the younger Abigail who married John[2] Way. was Zacchens - and he had a daughter Abigail. — Who Zacchens Howes wid does not appear and I do not need it for any present purpose. — I find his marriage in the Frds.' Records — as appears on the other side of the paper.

John[2] Way and Thos[2] Howes by the marriage of the mother of the latter to John[1] Way, became step brothers and then the widow of one ½ brother marries the other ½ brother for his 2[d]. wife - and her 2[d]. husband. -

*8887. L. Darling, Childs. A. R. H., April 13, 1910. A correspondent on Long Island writes me that Huntington was settled in 1653, by a company of Puritans from Stamford, Conn. In 1666, Richard Darling is one of the fifty-seven landowners. Tradition says he moved to Nantucket, Mass. Does anyone have records of Nantucket family of Darlings? History of Smithtown, L. I., says Darlingtown was settled early in eighteenth century by John Darling from Nantucket, Mass., with his three sons, Adam, John and Hamilton. Can anyone trace the lineage of this John, or give list of Darlings who went to Huntington? A correspondent in Vermont found a statement, date omitted, that "Thomas Darling, Gent., from Essex, Eng., came with his brothers, Edward, whose oldest son was Henry, and Richard, whose oldest son was John." Perhaps these last two are the Huntington and Nantucket men. Where did the others locate? My ancestor, Samuel Darling, was born at Jamaica, L. I., 1695, died at New Haven in April, 1760. His mother was "Miss Burrows, the Burrows family from England." He had son Thomas; great-grandson John. It is a matter of record that a Richard Darling and his father-in-law, Andrew Messenger, were at Jamaica in 1662, both landowners. In 1774, Richard had left his wife, Abigail, who sued for divorce and later married —— Mills (probably Zacharlah, for there is a deed there from Thomas Darling to Zachariah Mills and one from Samuel also). In 1690, Abigail H. Mills deeds property to her son, Thomas Darling, probably of age then at least. In 1607-8, "Samuel Darlinge, belonging to Jamaica," deeds land. Andrew Messenger buys land of Walter Hoyt of Norwalk in 1686, and is living there in 1694. Can anyone give settlement of his estate, or of Zachariah Mills?

I heard that Martin Van Buren Darling of Providence, R. I., compiled a Darling genealogy, never published. He died several years ago, and left two daughters, since married, whose names I am anxious to learn, hoping to borrow this Darling genealogy. Any aid on above problems will be very acceptable to one hundreds of miles west of these placed named. A. R. H.

(*5062.) Foye. Can anyone give me any information regarding William Foye, Salem, Mass., 1760, married Elizabeth Masury, first wife, afterwards married Mary Collins Ledbetter. Where did he die, and where married? My records mention a Harry Foye who lived in Portland and had: Harry, Monroe and Mary Ledbetter. William Foye served on the ship Thomas in 1780. E. E. S. P.
